

Plants

Link for teachers notes

Label the Parts of a Plant

Petals

Flower

Stem

Soil

Leaf

Roots

What is a seed?

A seed is a little package.

It has a baby plant in it.

It has food for the little plant too.

The seed gets water and sunshine.

It starts to grow roots under the ground.

The stem holds up the leaves and flowers.

Now the seed has become a young plant.

Use Paragraph to Answer Questions on Next Page

What is a seed like?

a jar

a package

a box

What is in a seed?

baby plant and food

water and roots

dirt and sand

What does a seed need to grow?

water and wind

sun and water

lightning and thunder

What does a seed grow underground?

stem

a flower

roots

What does a seed grow above ground?

stem

roots

dirt

What holds up the leaves of a plant?

root

stem

flowers